Doct Lattat I requested you once not to tax me with your sheet for reasons which I need not rehearse I will have nothing to do with you if I can help it but if you do not let me alone you must take what will follow. With a mean man go the notes, all you can say of me I regard not for you are well known in this country and well calculated to be a hever of wood & drawer of water for others. I ask ^{you} again to send no more of your stuff to me, I mean read it but lost it from me I would any other filthy thing -
